The large and fattentive audience that convened at the Zane Street M. E. Church lest night may be taken as evidence of the fact that the interest in the temperance work and the adoption of the proposed work and the adoption of the proposed amendment is meeting with popular approval and favor. The house was filled at an early hour. The services were opened promptly at 7½, Rev. Hite conducting the same. Earnest and impressive addresses were delivered by G. W. Baggs, Esq., Rev. J., D. Moffat and Rev. Walter C. Long. Senator D. McGregor presided at the meeting, and several members of the Senate and House of Delegates were present. After singing "Hold the Fort" by the entire audience the meeting was dismissed with a benediction by Rev. J. D. Moffat. A temperance meeting will be held at Ott's Hall this evening. G. W. Baggs, E. G. Cracraft and other speakers will be present.
